

Content Outline – Oruç Reis Website

Claire Huang

Italicized = pages/sections – I’d like to be able to scroll down through it – scrolling through his life – mayhaps it’s possible to link to sections in a navigation bar??

Images are probably sufficient: if need be I can always go hunt some relevant images through his more famous brother Hizir Reis/Hayreddin Barbarossa.

Intro (probably homepage)

- Career, “Barbarossa” moniker (maybe + some of the alternate spellings: “Oruch,” “Arudj,” “Aruj”; what he did (transporting Morisco + Mudejar refugees to North Africa, establishing Algiers, interactions with Ottomans/Spanish)

Background and Family

- Incl Hizir Reis/Hayreddin Barbarossa

Start as a corsair

- Incl. enslavement by Knights of St. John, probably

Bey of Algiers

- Incl. est sultanate and then joining the Ottoman empire (bye “sultanate” hello “bey”)

Death + legacy

- Tlemcen
- Incl. Hizir Reis/Hayreddin Barbarossa
- Ottoman Algiers (until 1830, loss to France)
